Remnants of Society

Danielle Cartier, Artist

Free Opening Reception:
Second Friday, November 8, 6:00 - 8:00 pm

Danielle Cartier is best known for her mural projects and large-scale, multimedia paintings made from reconstructed materials, recombined ephemera and layered printmaking and painting processes.

Cartier has exhibited her work across northern California, the Midwest and Mid-Atlantic region, as well as the Tri-State Area, New England and the Greater Philadelphia region. Recently, Cartier painted and installed three public art murals within the Waterfront South neighborhood of Camden. Her Camden mural project was a headlining article in the South Jersey Courier Post and was also featured on ABC Channel 6 Action News Philadelphia.

Currently, she teaches Color Theory, Figure Drawing, 2D and 3D Design Fundamentals at Harcum College in Pennsylvania and she teaches Introduction to Studio Art, Visual Fundamentals and Painting at Rutgers University in Camden, New Jersey. She has also worked as an art instructor at the University of Pennsylvania and teaches at various non-profits and community art centers in Pennsylvania, New York, New Jersey and Delaware. Cartier continues to make large-scale multimedia paintings and public art murals from her local studio at Camden Fireworks.

Danielle Cartier was born in San Jose, California and grew up in the Northern California Bay Area. She graduated with honors from Sonoma State University in 2014 with a Bachelor of Fine Arts degree, concentrating in both painting and printmaking. In May 2017, Danielle received her Master of Fine Arts degree from the Graduate School of Design at the University of Pennsylvania in Philadelphia.
